Teuton Chancellor to State Terms on Which Peace Will Be Considered

LONDON, March 10.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent says he learns that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial Chancellor, will make a statement in the Reichstag today setting forth the terms on which Germany is willing to make peace.

ARIEL SINKS U-20

LONDON, March 10.—The British admiralty announced tonight that the German submarine which was rammed and sunk today by the British torpedo boat destroyer Ariel was the U-12 instead of the U-20, as previously stated.

LONDON, March 10, 2:35 p. m.—The German submarine U-20 has been sent to the bottom, according to a statement given out today by the British admiralty.

The submarine, according to the official announcement, was rammed today by the British torpedo boat destroyer Ariel. Members of the submersible's crew surrendered and were saved.

The submarine U-20 was built in 1913. She had a displacement of 840 tons and a speed of seventeen knots on the surface and twelve knots submerged. She was equipped with four torpedo tubes.

The location of the sinking of the submarine is not disclosed in the admiralty announcement. The captured crew will be deprived of all special privileges, as was done in the case of the men on board the U-8, and they will be held for trial in connection with the sinking of merchant vessels. The U-20 probably is the submarine which yesterday sunk the British steamer Blackwood.

Equipped with four torpedo tubes, comparatively she was one of the larger of the German submarines, the U-8 and the U-9 having a tonnage of only 300 and a submerged speed of not more than eight knots. The maximum radius of boats of the U-20 type has been given in marine authorities at 2000 miles.

The loss of the U-20 makes the seventh German submarine destroyed since the beginning of the war, according to statements given out officially in London. These boats are U-15, sunk by the British cruiser Birmingham in August; U-18, rammed and sunk by a British patrol boat November 23d, and three unidentified submersibles officially declared lost on October 26th, October 30th and February 28th. The sixth submarine destroyed was the U-8 which was sunk off Dover March 4th.

ITALY SENDS FLEET

GENEVA, via Paris, March 10.—The Tribune says it has learned from Vienna that several Italian warships have put to sea, probably bound for the Dardanelles.

ENGLAND SEES SUCCESS AHEAD

The crisis in Greece seems temporarily to have been bridged with the formation of a new cabinet, but whether the new premier can control the chamber of deputies is causing much speculation here. Though officially denied, reports insist that a ministerial crisis has arisen in Bulgaria, where the premier, favoring intervention, was opposed by King Ferdinand. It is said that the Bulgarian prime minister stepped from office at the same time that Greece's leading statesmen retired.

Paris officially confirmed today what London heard unofficially last night, namely, that the superdreadnought Queen Elizabeth shipped into the Dardanelles proper on Monday and bombarded the Turkish forts, and other one of which, on the European side, has been partly demolished. Correspondents at Petrograd of English newspapers say the German effort to reduce the Russian fortress of Osowetz, together with the reported German defeat at Grodno and Przasnysz, means the definite abandonment of the German offensive in North Poland, thus making, in the

GOVERNOR CRUISER IN PLANS W.P. PURCHASE REFUGE AT NEWPORT

Movement for State Buying Railroad Is Initiated

Johnson Holds Session to Discuss Sale of Railway

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson has initiated a movement for the purchase of the Western Pacific railroad, now in the hands of receivers, by the State of California, it was announced in the governor's office this morning. The announcement was made after Gov. Johnson had held a long conference with Rudolph Spreckels, a San Francisco financier, from whom the original suggestion for government ownership of the Western Pacific came, and with Charles S. Wheeler of San Francisco, an attorney who has appeared for the Western Pacific as counsel in some special cases.

"At a conference with Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Wheeler this morning a plan was discussed and adopted for the State of California to purchase the Western Pacific railroad," said Governor Johnson.

"So far as the details are concerned that is a matter that will follow soon. We shall proceed at once to work them out. But we decided that the movement for the purchase of the railroad should commence at once. It is my idea they with California coming and operating a great transcontinental railroad the State will always be assured of commercial agreements. The presence of Warren Olney Jr., one of the two receivers of the Western Pacific Company, led to a report that Olney was in conference with Governor Johnson on the Western Pacific matter, but Olney declared that he was in Sacramento on

Elusive German Ship Puts In With 300 Prisoners

Chased by British, Is Said; May Be Interned

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The news of the sinking of the American sailing ship William P. Frye in the South Atlantic on January 27 by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich caused a sensation in official and diplomatic quarters. Customs Collector Hamilton at Norfolk forwarded to the treasury department a report of his conversation with Surgeon Knobel of the Prinz Eitel, and it was immediately communicated to officials at the state department.

Without having a full report and time for consideration of the subject officials reserved their comment. It is a well-established principle of international law, however, that the Prinz Eitel had no right to destroy the Frye if she were carrying a non-contraband cargo, such as wheat, with which she sailed from Seattle. If she were carrying contraband of war, the Eitel had a right to sink her, and probably the law of military necessity warrants the destruction of such a ship and compels reparation to the owners.

The Frye carried a policy for $11,550 on her hull with the government war risk insurance bureau, in addition to other insurance written by private companies. The figures at the government bureau gave the value of the Frye at about $90,000.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 10.—The German auxiliary cruiser, Prinz Eitel Friedrich, another of the elusive German sea rovers, which have been hindering commerce of the allies on the seven seas, slipped into port here early today, presumably eluding the British and French cruisers along the coast, in need of repairs, coal and provisions for her crew, and with about 300 prisoners taken from prizes.

Last night, after dark, the German ship appeared off Cape Henry, but did not enter until after daylight, when she passed quarantine and dropped anchor at this port. All her officers preserved the strictest silence. Her captain dispatched a message telling of his arrival to the German embassy in Washington. The United States coast guard ship Onondaga went alongside to take up her watch to preserve the neutrality of the United States until officials at Washington decided what shall be done with the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

PAINTED TWO COLORS. Scarred by the red rust and salt of her months at sea, the German auxiliary was painted white on one side and black on the other. It was reported in marine circles that the Eitel Friedrich had been chased to the three-mile limit by a British cruiser, but as the German captain had sealed the lips of his officers, it was not confirmed.

Marine circles were startled when the long, sleek ship, easily distinguishable by the lines of a North German

'Homesick,' Says Boy Bandit; Is Country Youth

"I was homesick and wanted to go back to the farm in Missouri," said Zeibert Goza, the twenty-seven-year-old bandit who single-handedly attempted to rob the Niles State Bank at Niles last yesterday afternoon, and shot Cashier Charles Evans through the shoulder as he fled through the door into the street to give the alarm.

Goza was captured after a spectacular chase through the village streets pursued by constables, armed citizens who had heard the shot, moving picture men and cowboys who were quartered nearby in the plant of a "movie" film company. The chase lasted for fifteen minutes and during the interval numerous shots were fired at the fugitive, none of which took effect. Goza, terrified at the predicament in which he found himself, did not return the fire, and when C. J. Sellers, night operator for the Southern Pacific Company, who lives about a half-mile from the bank, saw the youth running in his direction, revolver in hand, he intercepted him and sticking a pair of pliers in his face had no difficulty in effecting his capture.

Goza entered the bank at 3 o'clock as Cashier Evans was about to close and asked for some paper to roll up a package of nukes. Evans had started toward the door to close it when he was suddenly ordered to hold up his hands. He turned to look into the muzzle of the revolver held by the bandit, who was unmasked. Instead of obeying the command Evans turned and started to run into the street. A shot rang out and he was struck in the right shoulder from behind. He reeled into the street as Goza rushed past him. By that time persons in the vicinity who had heard the shot rushed up and they raised a hue and cry, which immediately resulted in a pursuit after the fleeing bandit.

When Goza was intercepted by Sellers he was quickly overpowered and his revolver taken from him.

POPULACE BEGS FOR FOOD

U. S. Assembles Greatest Fleet in Country's History

Obregon Remains in Complete Control at Metropolis

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Mexican Red Cross appealed today to the American Red Cross, through Secretary Bryan, for food for the starving populace in Mexico City. The appeal said the famine in the Mexican capital was rapidly growing worse. Secretary Bryan said the State Department would co-operate with the Red Cross so far as possible.

A dispatch from Vera Cruz dated yesterday morning at 10 o'clock indicated that General Obregon was still in control of affairs at Mexico City. Other advices from Vera Cruz indicated that negotiations were in progress which probably will make possible the export of Sisal Fibre from Progreso, the Yucatan port blockaded by Carranza's order. For the present, however, General Carranza refuses to permit the steamer Morro Castle to call at Progreso or to grant clearance papers to the Pathfinder, from Vera Cruz to the same port.

GREATEST U. S. FLEET. Secretary Daniels today issued a statement on the condition of the Atlantic fleet and its auxiliaries now maneuvering in Mexican gulf and Caribbean waters. It was considered significant by some observers of the Mexican situation, and follows:

"Never before in the history of our navy has such a powerful fleet been assembled for active service, maneuvers and target practice, with guns and torpedoes, as that based on Guantanamo, Cuba, for the last two months under the command of Rear-Admiral Fletcher, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet. This force now consists of nineteen battleships and twenty destroyers with a flagship and a tender.

"Based also on Guantanamo bay is the cruiser squadron, consisting of two armored cruisers and seven light cruisers and gunboats, the various units of which have been operating in the vicinity of Hayti, Santo Domingo and the east coast of Mexico.

"The vessels comprising this fleet are ready for any service, and are accompanied by repair ships, supply ships and fuel ships, carrying coal, oil and supplies for an extended period.

"At Key West the reserve torpedo flotilla, consisting of ten destroyers and a tender, have been in readiness for service.

"At Pensacola six submarines with four tenders have been engaged in maneuvers and in joint operation with air craft and with the navy.

"Results of the extended operations in which the above-mentioned vessels are engaged cannot fail to be of great benefit to the navy.

Schoolboy Is Killed In Jitney Bus Mishap

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—While hurrying to school because he was a few minutes late, James Ruetzell, 9 years old, son of H. D. Ruetzell, a capitalist of 1708 Fell street, was run over by a jitney bus and received injuries from which he died at 11 a. m. today at the Southern Pacific hospital.

The youngster was crossing through the neighborhood at Central avenue and street, when a machine, driven by William J. McConnel, approached. To save the boy could get out of the way or McConnel could stop, he had been struck and the wheels of the heavy car passed over him. McConnel stopped, placed the boy in the auto and hurried with him to the Southern Pacific hospital.

The doctors made an examination and discovered that he abdomen had been badly crushed, and that he probably suffered an internal rupture of the intestines.

Ruetzell and his mother were notified immediately and both were prostrated over the affair as the boy was the only child they had. McConnel surrendered himself to the police as a defective and was locked in a cage of manslaughter by Detective Joe La Guerra.

Opinion of these correspondents, Field Marshal von Hindenburg's rush over the frontier another costly failure. The Germans, though unable to advance in Russia, are reported to be holding a line some thirty miles behind the extreme limit of their forward rush of the month ago. By Associated Press. PETROGRAD, March 10, via London.—The following communication was issued last night:

"To the south of Khorlele the enemy is bringing great forces into the fighting line. The German troops on the offensive south of Drobin were repulsed with heavy losses."

"On the left bank of the Vistula, in the Pilla region, the action is alternatively offensive and defensive. We have captured prisoners and machine guns."

"In the Carpathians, in the region of Baligród, the Austrians continue their offensive, notwithstanding their crushing losses near the village of Studenka. The enemy succeeded in capturing the advanced trenches of two of our battalions. In the Uzok, Munkacs region the enemy's offensive was repulsed."

TURKS IN PERSIA SLOWLY RETREAT

By Associated Press. TEHRAN, Trans-Caucasia, Tuesday, March 9, via Petrograd, March 10, 10 a. m., and via London, 11:30 a. m.—The Turkish forces and the Kurds who have been concentrated in the district of Khul, in northwestern Persia, are slowly being forced by the Russians to retreat to the southward. Russian forces already have come into possession of several villages in which Turkish troops had been quartered. Information from the south is that a large number of Armenians who remained in Urumiah (a city in Persian Armenia, sixty miles from Tabriz) were placed under the protection of the American consular officials. There and in the city of Tabriz, two thousand Armenians were locked in a church at Urumiah for food and many died from starvation and disease.

DACIA SEIZURE PROTEST IS MADE

By Associated Press. PARIS, March 10, 10:10 a. m.—E. N. Breitung of New York, owner of the steamer Dacia, has entered a protest against the seizure of his vessel by the French military authorities. He has engaged Paul Gourev, president of the French Association of Maritime Law, to defend his interests.

The Dacia belonged formerly to the Hamburg-American line. She changed her registry and became an American ship after the outbreak of hostilities. Laden with cotton and destined to Germany, she was on her way from the United States to Rotterdam when picked up at sea by a French cruiser and taken into Brest. Her case is to come up before the French prize court.

AUSTRIANS TAKE 600 PRISONERS

By Associated Press. VIENNA, March 9, via London, March 10.—The Austrian war office last night issued the following statement:

"On the north of the Vistula a lively artillery duel continued yesterday. South of Lopuszno (in the Kislonek region) Russian attacks were easily repulsed. In the region of Gorlice, in Galicia, which was carried through resulted in the capture of additional prisoners. The positions won have been maintained despite several attempts of the enemy to regain them."

Uninterrupted attacks are being made by the enemy on the Carpathian front, sometimes with strong and sometimes with inferior forces. Yesterday violent Russian attacks at several points which reached our entrenchments were beaten back with heavy enemy losses. In these battles the 10th and 11th divisions remained in our hands. Unfavorable weather conditions again are prevailing in the Carpathians. They demand quite extraordinary efforts from the army corps employed on this front."

"The continuous contact with the enemy, our troops often are engaged day and night and several times have been obliged, in the great cold and the deep snow, to carry out attacking movements or stand on the defensive. Especially against superior enemy forces. Unlimited praise is due the behavior of our brave troops, as well as to every individual taking part in these battles."

Swiss Postal Service Shows Big Deficit

By Associated Press. BERNE, Switzerland, via Paris, March 10.—The Swiss postal service shows a deficit of 3,000,000 francs ($1,800,000) for the period since the beginning of the war. This is due entirely to the free transportation of letters, parcels and packages and postal orders for prisoners of war in France and Germany.

In February there was a daily average of 135,000 letters and postcards sent in 10,000 parcels thus carried free. Of the packages an average of 10,000 daily weighed about 11 pounds each. The daily average of money orders was 5500.

It is understood that the Swiss government is negotiating a loan in New York to finance the purchase of grain.

REDUCTIONS URGED BY JURY

Supplemental Report, Advising Economy, Sent to Legislators.

Foreman A. K. P. Harman of the Alameda Grand Jury forwarded today to the Alameda County Board of Supervisors a supplemental grand jury report concerning certain changes in county officers as to additional duties, new salaries and increases in salaries. The data was received by members of the board at a recent hearing held in Oakland of the grand jury's previous report covering the same item. The new report recommends that no changes be made in the office of public administrator, that the salary of the public administrator be reduced from $6000 to $5000. Two new additional judges are again urged on the grounds of increased business and that the salary and fees of the sheriff's office be not disturbed. The salary of $3000 paid to the county assessor is declared too large and the original recommendations of the grand jury are urged again.

In the county clerk's office it is suggested that the present staff is sufficient and in need of no reduction, and that additional help be provided for years of which one or more elections are held. No other changes are recommended.

Reduction of the salary of the tax collector is also recommended, and various changes in the conduct of county business are tentatively outlined.

The report explains the jury's purpose as follows:

"The grand jury, in arriving at its original recommendations, did so only after a careful comparison of the salaries paid the various county officers in the various counties of the state. The salaries of the various county officers in the various counties of the state are as follows:

SOLONS RUSH LEGISLATIVE DETAILS; SENATOR WOLFE ANSWERS ENEMIES

WORK RUSHED BY STATE SENATE

Bills Passed, Files Cleared and Fight Held in Day.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—The Senate today cleared its legislative work with a rush, passing a number of bills and clearing up the files. The day was a busy one for the senators, with many bills being passed and the files being cleared.

The defeated measure was not considered of great importance, but it was a test of the Senate's power. The bill was passed by a vote of 17 to 10, with the majority being the supporters of the measure.

Nearly half the members of the Senate took part in the debate and when the roll was called the vote was 17 to 10. The bill was passed by a vote of 17 to 10, with the majority being the supporters of the measure.

A lesser battle was waged over a bill by Butler of Los Angeles forbidding the marriage of first cousins. Butler declared that first cousins were of the same blood degree as a half-brother and sister or an uncle and niece.

Senator Wolfe vigorously opposed the bill with the declaration that he would not vote to place a stigma upon marriages already consummated between first cousins. The bill was finally sent back to the Judiciary Committee.

ROAD BILL PASSES.

Senator Edwards's bill permitting the State to purchase strips of land on both sides of the State highways so that highways through the mountain forests could not be laid naked by the hand of commerce was passed unopposed.

A bill by Senator Breed was passed to change the monosyllabic word in the initiative measure from "shall" to "may" for new buildings at the University of California adopted by the people last fall.

Senator Flaherty's bill requiring dust-proof containers for cement came up for final passage, but on Flaherty's request was referred back to the Committee on Public Health. Flaherty said that a general desire for further hearings had been expressed.

A resolution by Senator Slater approving eleven amendments to the charter of Petaluma was unanimously adopted.

GRANT AND BENSON IN ORATORICAL BATTLE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—The Senate chamber was packed and the galleries were crowded with an audience eager to hear the speech of Senator Wolfe in reply to published attacks which he said had been made throughout the State at the time of his election over E. E. Grant, and subsequently when the Senate seated him after Grant's contest. It was one of the densest throngs the Senate has contained in years and included many state officials.

For an hour and a half Wolfe spoke, reviewing the history of his first defeat by Grant, the recall of Grant and his own reelection to the seat, and castigating those who had assailed him.

When he finished applause from one side of the chamber continued for several seconds.

Senator Frank R. Benson of San Jose rose in reply and defense of those whom Wolfe had assailed. Benson declared that Grant had been recalled on cowardly subterfuge for the sole reason that he had fought for the redemptive amendment and that Senator Wolfe had taken advantage of the situation to return to the Senate.

When Benson concluded he, too, was applauded, the handclapping coming from the opposite side of the chamber.

PRISONS ARE CROWDED; MORE CELLS ORDERED

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—In order to meet the crowded conditions in California's two State prisons, the advisory board of the State Engineering Department passed an emergency measure yesterday calling for bids for the completion of a half of the new cell-house at Folsom.

The call for more cell room is so urgent that the advisory board decided to accept bids for the completion of the new cell-house at Folsom.

The cost of the work, according to the State Engineering Department, will be $54,555, most of which will be expended in labor. The frame of the long four-story structure is in place. Concrete capable of standing the heaviest test will be used in the construction.

It is declared that the heavy increase in California's population of late, together with the large army of unemployed making California their headquarters, are responsible for greatly increasing the population of the prisons.

WILL GIVE HEARING ON LOCAL OPTION BILL

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—A public hearing on a bill to change local option from the supervisory to the county unit will be held by the Senate public morals committee next Tuesday night. The bill is regarded as one of the foremost measures on the lower question before the legislature.

Importers and dozens of producers of eggs are expected to oppose each other's interest at a joint public hearing on a bill providing for a standard of egg production. The bill is directed against the importation of eggs from China.

"ANTI-SPOTTER" BILL IS PASSED

Assembly Scene of First Victory of Labor Organizations.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—Labor won its first victory in the legislature yesterday when the Assembly by a vote of 19 to 12 passed the "spotter" bill. The measure introduced and favored by Assemblyman Brown of San Francisco, requires that railroads, street car companies or other corporations employing special agents shall give employees charged with misconduct an opportunity to defend themselves. It being concluded with the so-called "spotter" making the accusation.

The bill was made the subject of a spirited fight in the labor and capital committee during the January session when counsel for the railroads and street car companies opposed a favorable recommendation for the measure.

On the floor of the House today Assemblyman Pettis, Lawson, F. C. Scott and Ormari spoke against the measure. The spotter system was defended by them as a necessary safeguard to the traveling public inasmuch as it resulted, they claimed, in the ultimate weeding out of dishonest and incompetent railroad employees.

Two other bills important from a labor standpoint were on today's list for final action, but by consent of their authors were postponed for action later this week.

The Assembly continued today to work at full speed, with the result that thirteen bills were passed and the remaining five were re-referred to committees for amendment or withdrawn entirely.

Assemblyman Spender and Downing introduced proposed constitutional amendments seeking to change the organic law to provide for representation in State and congressional elections. Schmitt introduced a bill at the request of the State Association of County Recorders requiring deeds and official documents, printed in foreign languages, to be accompanied by an English translation.

COURT IS FAR BEHIND IN WORK

Chief Justice Sullivan Urges Speeding of Civil Procedure.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—California's Supreme Court is from two and a half to three years behind in its work, according to a statement yesterday by Matt I. Sullivan, former chief justice of the supreme bench, at a joint Senate and Assembly hearing on a sheaf of bills to speed up civil procedure by the reduction of technicalities and the elimination of long delays.

The bills were introduced and are being urged by the State, San Francisco and Los Angeles bar associations, the Commercial Club of San Francisco, and a large number of prominent attorneys.

"It takes about a year and a half to get an appeal to the Supreme Court and then a couple of more years for the Supreme Court to reach it," said A. E. Bolton of San Francisco. "These bills put restrictions upon motions for new trials and limit the time an appeal may be taken to sixty days from the judgment so that the outside limit of waiting from the time the Supreme Court would be four months."

"Before similar remedies were applied to criminal law convicted men would sometimes lie in jail for years waiting on their appeal. Civil law must have remedies applied. Nothing will add so much to the prosperity of the State as the speedy determination of the people in the courts."

RE-FORESTATION URGED BY STATE COMMISSION

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—Reforestation by the State 1,545,000 acres of cut-over timberlands in California is one of the urgent recommendations of the report of the State Conservation Commission filed with Governor Johnson and the legislature yesterday.

It is urged that the cut-over lands, now used for grazing, could be purchased by the State at a nominal cost, or that owners could give the lands to the State and re-purchase them after they had been clothed with growing timber at the sum expended by the State. A bill for such reforestation is before the legislature.

In presenting its arguments for a bill consolidating the half-dozen forestry, conservation and the fish and game commissions, the report declares that "California is probably the only State having the control of its natural resources in so many disconnected offices and commissions."

Consolidation would bring greater efficiency and economy and eliminate duplication of work, argues the report.

PRUSSIAN DIET ACCEPTS BUDGET, BERLIN SAYS

LONDON, March 10.—The Prussian diet accepted the budget on third reading, says a Reuters message from Berlin. The Socialist members voted against the measure and the Prussian chamber at its final session, the president, Count Von Schwarin-Lowitz, said:

"When the house meets again I hope that under the powerful news of our glorious troops we shall have progressed further in vanquishing the enemy west, north and east and that the certain confidence in a final victory with which we adjourn today will then have approached nearer to fulfillment."

BRITISH SEIZE BARK FLYING AMERICAN FLAG

By Associated Press.
GALVESTON, Tex., March 10.—The American bark Pass of Baltimore, from New York to Bremen carrying 6000 bales of cotton, has been seized by a British cruiser and taken to Kikwell, England, according to reports here to B. E. Harris, member of a cotton concern which chartered the bark.

LEGISLATURE WILL VISIT FAIR

Resolution to Be Placed Before Both House Is Proposed Plan.

By Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, March 10.—The day of the latter half of the session of the legislature found both Senate and Assembly working at full speed today with an eye to an earlier final adjournment than has marked the legislative sessions of former years. By yesterday all the preliminaries of reconvening, following the recess, had been cleared away and the two Houses were ready today to proceed unhampered with the work where they dropped it at the end of January.

One of the important moves of the day was a resolution which Assemblyman Schmitt made known last night he would introduce today for the 120 members of the legislature to visit the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco on March 20. Before presenting his resolution Schmitt talked with Governor Johnson and Lieutenant-Governor Eshleman and said that he had received their approval of the resolution.

Both houses were scheduled today to go through a large number of bills ready for final passage, most of them being bills of lesser importance, there having been established a general understanding that the bills involving a sharp contest would be deferred for final action until next week.

War Summary

Another of the German submarines which have been seeking to enforce Germany's naval war zone decree has gone to the bottom. The British admiralty announced today that the U-20, built in 1913, had been destroyed.

Bombardment of the Dardanelles, which was again interrupted by unfavorable weather conditions, is reported unofficially to be resumed. The allied fleet to have made further progress in the narrow straits, and Constantinople under its state, elements that no serious damage has been inflicted except to the weaker fortifications at the entrance to the straits.

Germany has taken further measures to conserve food supplies. The Bundesrath has ordered the expropriation, with certain exception of all stocks of barley, excepting a metric ton.

It is asserted at Petrograd that the German forces which invaded Northern Poland, following the defeat of the Russians in East Prussia, have now retreated close to the border, except in a few exceptions of the front. The German attack on the fortress of Osovetz is being conducted in the narrow straits. The Germans are concentrating their efforts in the endeavor to break through the Russian fortified line at this point.

Minor victories over the Turkish forces which recently have become active in Northwestern Persia are described in a message from Tiflis. The Russians have forced back the Turks, taking several villages.

A battle of unusual violence, although probably not engaging large numbers of troops, is in progress in the Argonne. After being twice expelled from trenches, the Germans returned a third time to the attack, in which at last reports they were still engaged. With this exception there were no engagements of consequence on the western front yesterday.

Allies' Fire Destroys Dardanelles Villages

By Associated Press.
LONDON, March 10.—An Athens dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says the villages of Kild Bahr and Kephedie, in the Dardanelles, have been burned as a result of bombardment by the allied warships.

John L. Davis, former mayor of Oakland, has filed his declaration of candidacy for mayor. The other candidates are Frank Filzer, W. E. Gibson and Thomas Booth.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Julius Krutchnitt, executive head of the Southern Pacific, was on the stand today in the hearing at the Flood building, held on the matter of the proposed annexation of the Central and Southern Pacific lines. Operative details were the principal matters testified to.

The city council today decided to insure with the California State Insurance board, beginning July 1, the commencement of the fiscal year. The city insures under the terms of the employees' liability compensation act. The commissioners decided to take this action after listening to the report of Attorney Leslie of the state board.

MORE WORK FOR JOBLESS SOUGHT

City Appropriation Asked to Resume Work at Park.

Petition was filed with the city council today by 235 married men with families who are residents of Oakland and who have been working for the city under the appropriation made recently to care for them, asking that an additional appropriation be made. The $2000 originally appropriated is almost exhausted, and in the meanwhile less than five per cent of the men have been able to obtain employment at their various trades. The matter was referred to the commissioner of finance.

The unemployed married men have been working in the Trestle Glen park. They have cleared the park of poison oak, have built rustic paths, taken out underbrush and greatly improved the park. They have worked willingly and well in return for the small amounts of money which the city has given them.

In his monthly report to the city council, Superintendent W. S. Goodrich said in this connection:

"The $2000 is exhausted. The city received in return 8000 hours of labor. Every cent appropriated was paid out in wages. There have been no expenses in handling the men, and the labor incident to administration having been voluntary. The money has served a very useful purpose; it is all that has stood between some hundreds of women and children and eviction from their homes and hunger."

"It has been impossible to get work for able men with families and standing in the community. There was no employment to be had for them. The lot of the homeless man was even harder. Outside of such places as the municipal shelter, in order to live, he must beg or steal. So far as Oakland is concerned, he was obliged to do neither. We cared for all who came, in some fashion. The men paid for labor, but the main saving to the community is not so readily seen."

The petition filed with the council today follows:

"We, the undersigned married men, residents of Oakland and mostly American born citizens, representing over 200 destitute men and over 1000 dependents, petition for the appropriation of $2000 which we were given the opportunity of earning at the city park, which was enough, for the main saving to the community is not so readily seen."

SALEM, Ore., March 10.—The state fair board, in session here yesterday, decided that after the 1915 fair the Oregon Futurity races shall be wiped from the card. LATE MODES IN LAVISH DISPLAY

GREAT FASHION SHOW READY TO SET NEW STYLES

American Modes Are King; Military Modes, Wide Skirts, Small Hats and Wonderful Fabrics and Colors Are Featured in Exhibits

MR. AND MRS. OAKLAND and all the little Oaklands may now refrain from further worry as to what they will wear during the exposition year, as the greatest fashion show in the city's history will open tomorrow morning, to continue throughout Friday and Saturday. Every store in the downtown section of the city, from the biggest and most complete establishment to the smallest and least pretentious, will display in lavish abundance the "correct things" that the fashionable world is so eager to know about.

Gowns of all kinds, makes, cuts, cloths and colors; hats that had their origin in the brains of some of the world's real artists; shoes that are things to dream of; lingerie that will be a marvel of fine and costly fabrics and fluffy masses of ribbons; in fact, everything that delights the hearts of the lovers of fine clothes will be abundantly displayed.

The distinct and unique feature of the fashion show to open tomorrow, and, in fact, of all fashion shows in this country this year, is the fact that practically every style and fashion on display has originated in the brains of Americans. A very few of the styles are due to French dressmakers who have made their way to London, and to a few English designers, but the great majority of them are distinctly American.

Americans designers have set the pace for the spring modes. They will hereafter rule the world for taste and dress, a condition brought about by the European war. No longer is Paris the home of Dame Fashion and her progeny. That popular lady is now a resident of New York City. The American-designed modes have naturally led to a move among the women of the country to ask for American-made fabrics.

Oakland's fashion show is not to be entirely for women and misses. The men and children will have a small part of the glory of the raiment display, although the masculine display will be limited.

Alameda county women now realize that Oakland's stores offer them everything that other stores could possibly offer and at the same prices. The service is fully as efficient and in many instances far more so. In addition to all this, the shops are much easier of access. The accessibility of Oakland's shops—the fact that they are within one area and not spread over a number of districts in various parts of the city—is a big factor in favor of the local merchants.

In the past two years thousands of women who had been in the habit of inconveniencing themselves whenever clothes were desired by going across the bay for them now do all their shopping in Oakland stores. Here the modes are as far advanced as in any other city in the United States.

The women are pleased to know that the tendency of the new spring styles give a youthful air. The military influence is seen in many garments. New features of the silhouette are the narrow shoulder, the wide skirt, a raised waist line and sleeves fitted to the armholes. The American influence in the modes will be seen in the names of the colors of the fashionable fabrics. These include Delaware Peach, Palm Beach Sand, Arizona Silver, Oregon Green, Newport Tan, Tuxedo Brown, Rocky Mountain Blue, Gettysburg Gray and Piping Rock. The latter is a light shade of pure gray.

EFFECT OF WAR.

Of course the war has had its effect. The inspiration for many of the new modes may easily be traced to the costumes of the Dutch peasants, the clothes of the people of the Slav countries, and the quaint styles of the Chinese and Japanese. Styles of 1820 and 1830, in all their quaintness, will be in evidence.

Short jackets will be the rule. Serges, tan covers, poplin and gabardine are among the favorites and lead. Braids, buttons, ornaments and tassels are to be used to bring out the military effects.

Another favorite among colors is to be a gray checked material. One of the suits made in this fabric is of military cut and has a jacket flaring coquishly in the back. Red binds the buttonholes. The buttons in the front are of gold. The collar is of red outlined with gold soutache braid. The belt is of red suede and beneath it appear two patch-like pockets. The skirt is plaited, mounted on a novelty yoke, and has a turn-back cuff finishing in front with buttons and buttonholes.

A flare or ripple effect around the ankles will distinguish all suit skirts. Also plaited panel effects are to be used. The skirts will all be short, some escaping the ground by six inches, and some even shorter, while waves. The hair is to be parted at the side front in soft waves, or a broken pompadour, to frame the face. A simple style of the high collared hair is a Psyche knot at the crown. In some instances, clusters of curls may be added on one side. The French twist will continue to be worn.

SOME STYLES TO BE SEEN AT BIG EXHIBITION

Neat, but not gaudy, might aptly describe the striking suit costume worn by the woman in the center of the picture. Her garb is fashionable in the extreme for such as take to out-of-doors life. The original is to be seen at Ritas brothers.

On the left appears a tasteful costume displayed at Capwell's big store, while on the right appears one of the spring offerings at Taft & Penney's.

Many odd and distinctive effects mark the children's apparel this year. Empire dresses are in vogue for the smaller children. The older girls' dresses will be modified editions of the parents' dresses. There are Russian, Dutch, French and military inspirations in the little folks' frocks.

KNIGHTS OF MACCABEES ELECT NEW OFFICERS

By Associated Press.
TACOMA, Wash., March 10.—At the state convention of the Knights of Maccabees yesterday Ralph L. White of Seattle was chosen state commander. Other new officers named were the following: J. H. Weppeler of McMurray, lieutenant commander; Rex Roberts, Tacoma, record keeper; J. H. Planders, Walla Walla, chaplain; E. B. Florent, Tacoma, and Ed L. Oakes, Seattle, representatives to the supreme session at San Francisco in May; alternates, C. B. Schwartz of Bellingham and C. H. Reeves of Seattle.

GLOVES AND HATS ARE NOVEL

Even Parasols Differ From the Models of the Past.

Compensating for the controlled tones of the costume tailor, the evening gowns displayed at the Oakland fashion show are to be marvels of brilliancy and subtle splendor. The pinnacle of the weaver's skill and the craftsman's imagination has certainly been reached in some of the extraordinarily beautiful fabrics that will shimmer in the ball rooms this season. In place of the beaded tunic comes the embroidery of metal on sheer materials.

At Taft & Penney's among the imported novelties were haunting lengths of chiffon threaded in all-over patterns of silver or of gold on diaphanous grounds of cream, of chartreuse, of jade green and of pink. An exquisite flesh-colored Georgette crepe woven with large silver rose motifs was especially alluring. Another combination of exceeding subtlety was a hazy amethyst transparency with a border of satiny leaves in the same tone that developed into a deep spray of large and shining silver foliage.

For afternoon and evening coats there were supple, firm-bodied silks, French brocade and Khaki Kool, the new silk suit material. Tuscan gold is featured at this store as a coming favorite for tailor frocks. Exposition colors—flaxen, sea-blue, lattice-green and Exposition gold are also shown in a number of textiles.

Among the millinery novelties was an interesting model from Phipps of warm sand tones crepe with raffia bands dally sewed about the wide brim and the crown. Over the rose colored silk around the crown between the bands ran a double row of tiny pale sea-shells. Three rose bows at one side gave the finishing touch to this distinctly different chapeau.

Another exceptional creation found at Taft & Penney's was a poke of delightful Frenchness. It was completely composed of pale violets loosely caught to an unlined wire frame. About the crown ran a ribbon of black and old-gold that fell in long ends at the back and underneath the brim at one side, a pink rose struck a vivid contrasting note.

A checkered silk of sand and black covered one hat which was faced with straw and finished with celluloid motives that fastened the ribbon about the crown.

A dancing frock from Taft & Penney's was developed in rose-colored gros de londre, the pliable new silk of the summer, in a novel winding skirt of many flounces, surmounted by a wide grille at a normal waistline. Over it a bodice of cream lace in Etou effect, gave an airy appearance, delicately graceful.

From the same establishment an elaborate cloth tailor suit was of beige color, keyed up with touches of green in the trimming and white corded silk lapels. With it was worn a hat of Belgian blue Milan, trimmed with a flaring fantasy of golden brown velvet.

A charming dinner gown was composed of watermelon gros de londre in a picturesque high-waisted mode. The grille concluded at the front of the bodice with a great bow, contrasted with a mole gray velvet band. Frills of watermelon colored marquisette bordered with narrow strips of mole velvet formed the sleeves and a delicious drop skirt. A black Neapolitan hat in the Shepherdess sleeve attached to the lining at the shoulder, or set-in sleeves, will be very much in evidence in blouses. Epaulette or car effects will be shown on many sleeves. Partially military colors, usually of the same material as the blouses, will stand out at the back and sides. The collars will also be worn so as to be buttoned up to the neck, or converted into sailor collars. The smart blouses are to be made of maize, sea sand and putty colored fabrics, with pale flesh tints and white.

Oliver Twist models is the name of new sport waists to be made of handkerchief linen, with collars and cuffs of contrasting colors. Tailored waists will be finely tucked and buttoned up the front in rows of buttons. Much braiding and machine embroidery in silk floss will be used in waists.

NEW MILLINERY MODES.
American designers are also in evidence in the new millinery modes. Surprises are to be shown in hats, particularly in shape and form. The hats are less expensive than formerly, principally because there are not so much expensive trimmings used. As in dresses, blouses, waists and gowns to the effect of the European war will be seen in the chapeaux of the spring season. A feature of the hats will be a combination of straw and silk. The colors of most importance are battle-ship gray, purples, green, browns and sand-colored tete de negre. The spring shapes show a wide range of small and large hats. Soft effects prevail, the top of the hat being usually soft instead of the whole crown. Hats of suede kid in sailor effects will be much in evidence early in the season.

Searchlight, a new ribbon, and faille ribbons, with feathers, feather novelties and flowers, will be popular trimmings. Most of the hats are to be tilted over the right eye, at such an angle that the back hair will be exposed. An air of the hats of 1820 and 1829, as in some instances in gowns and dresses, will be about most of the new hats.

Although never out of style, the flowing draped veil is to be more popular than ever this year. Cobwebby, colored lace veils will be worn to harmonize or contrast with the hat. Numerous new effects in pins will be seen.

The "made in America" term is also a familiar one in shoeedom this year. Fresh laurels have been gained by American shoe manufacturers, for they have exerted themselves to provide novelty in both material and styles.

Again the war has placed its stamp on the American woman. Her shoes are to be martial, in that they will be high, trimmed with soutache braid, gold and silver buttons, and even tassels. Many new varieties and modes of shoes will be shown.

New offerings in lingerie, cheaply priced and exquisitely made, will be one of the pleasant surprises for the women. Unusual neck lines, and sleeves, new, frilly ruffles and lines cut to the form of the outer garments will be evidenced in all women's under dresses wear.

FAREWELL TO "SLOUCH."
As to corsets, the "slinker slouch" has been discarded. The new models incline to natural curves and upright poise. The bust is natural and shows its right curve to the figure in front. Careful corseting is imperative under the new costumes.

mode trimmed with shell-pink ostrich feathers and Belgian blue ribbon.

Among the other novel gowns was a decolette affair in black satin over a body of white net. The dress revealed two-inch openings at either side from the arm holes to below the hips. The drop of black lace and the lumps were bristled by French roses of pastel blue and pink and the face was used as a contrasting trimming. Very different was a "dancing frock" of a girl of sixteen. White net, in fluffy fullness over black silk, looked like a parrot costume with its many white ribbons and tiny pink roses caught over its surface.

Hats are more and more elaborate. They are smaller and they are braver, more and more perilous for women easily captivated by the bizarre. With a firm and wise milliner to lead her from the models curious to her style, she will live to regret in no time at all. There is, however, a wide and elastic range to accommodate a variety of types.

The poke bonnet is the most conspicuous note of rebellion against the military headgear which expressed itself this season in the "military" hats. The military hat is not supplanted, however, it is merely supplemented by additional shapes demanded by the quaint new silhouette. There are quantities of new small hats and there are tricorne and rolling brimmed sailors, wide brimmed hats as well. But the folks are destined to perhaps, with its deliciously sentimental air, to win the greatest popular favor.

MANY HAT STYLES.

In Gerwin's on Fourteenth street, an array of the latest millinery conceptions pines the gabarit from the incredibly abbreviated to the ampler brimmed model. One of the charming innovations is the large hat with the transparent bands between which are applied flat flowers of fascinating hues. The romantic disposition of these creations with their trailing ribbons cannot fail to attract the gaze.

"The season is to be a bright one," stated Mr. Simpson, the proprietor. While many of the styles are of softer tones like the street cost mes, the trimming usually strikes a high and brilliant key. Bright, yellow and orange blues, orange green, and butterfly gray will predominate. Old-rose will be used extensively and black and white combinations will be once more smart, especially in the checkered ribbon trimming. As to shapes, while the small chic hat is usually chosen, the new styles are fairly round. Crowns are slightly higher.

The trimming lies flat on most of these successful new hats, and is composed of brilliantly colored flowers and fruits, small and realistic, prominent, of strange bouquets from drawings of the far east. Never were wreathes so favored—and there are combinations that never came together in any harvest used with playful effect.

A return to the lechorn is imminent. A drop of leguons and poles of all designs which suggest the naive, there are many effective styles for children, in which the same fashion touches prevail as characterize the modes for their seniors.

PARASOLS GAY; STYLE IN GLOVES ALSO COLORFUL

Individual and different notes have been struck this season in the glove, and the parasol, which are to aid in giving the necessary chic to an otherwise simple costume. "The feature of the glove this spring," said W. H. Benwick of the Moss Glove and Umbrella Shop, "is the colored embroidery on the back. White, champagne and black gloves are to predominate with their stitching as an important factor. Heavy white stitching on the black glove, redeems it from a funeral appearance, while the champagne tone is smarter worn with dull-toned street suits than sand. The new white gloves, with the touch of blue, lavender, or green introduced into the white embroidery on the back are an innovation. Another novelty is a fabric glove made with a strap and closely resembling white leather. This article, which will wash, comes in white, chamels and gray."

Drawing attention to the extreme pliancy of the new parasols, George H. Lavenson showed at Moss' a variety of shapes, unostentatiously fantastic. One of these, the morning glory, is rather flat, with a turned-up flower-like brim. Another is bell-shaped. And all are of bright colors. For the parasol, is to be much in vogue, thanks to the extravagantly small chapeau, and therefore developed new characteristics.

NORMAL MODELS IN GOWNS RELIEF

The Greater Oakland Cloak and Suit House, according to Mr. Harris, has experienced such a rush that its cloak and suit department has been unable to keep up stock. At this shop which features as its specialty inexpensive garments in the latest modes, it is reported that sand shades and green are already being replaced by a big demand for blues and checks, the standard favorites. "It is a relief, also, in view of the many extreme models, to see a tendency to return to more normal lines," he stated. "An interesting number of plain tailored trottier suits with moderate skirts are beginning to come in. A modification of the enormously full gown is certainly imminent." At this shop as at others, a white coat season was predicted. A line of fascinating blouses, in nearly all cases showed the long, set-in sleeves and the high neck, closed or open in front. Many of the shiny dress blouses are to be short-sleeved, however, as warm weather always forces a return of this favorite.

A beautiful pattern frock for afternoon wear at this establishment was constructed of black and white striped pussy-willow tulle as to the accordion pleated skirt. A black silk bib forming the front and back of the bodice revealed under the arms a peacock blue girdle, caught at one side with a pink rose. Delicate cream lace sleeves of charming fullness completed a most successful ensemble.

WILL DISPLAY SMART STYLES

"Our aim during the Fashion Show," said D. H. Green, manager of S. N. Wood & Company, Washington and Eleventh streets, "is to display only those garments which Oakland women are most interested in. So we are featuring garments which are not only fashionable, but include everything in the way of smart styles. The suits are semi-Norfolk and pleated-back styles, cutaway jacket models, and plain tailored effects in Gabardine, covert Gabardine, and serge in such uncommonly good shades as Belgian and Navy blue, Tuxedo brown, black, Quaker gray, "Gaiter Top," Coldstream, Tonal, Sand, and Putty."

Unlike the general displays of Fashion Shows, the showing for the coming three days' exhibit at the store of "Money Back" Smith will be more practical. The idea used in the "Money Back" Smith store is to show merchandise that is strictly new in design and make, and the price within the means of its admirers. This is brought about by careful study and purchasing the style, price, fabric, and make being well proportioned. Thus, anyone, without seeking an inexpensive garment, is enabled to secure the newest styles in dependable fabrics at the figure he can afford to pay.

Thursday--Friday--Saturday
March Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth

At no time in the lives of the present generation has the official, nation-wide introduction of a new season's fashions been preceded by such a bubble and stir of excitement and uncertainties as has the present opening.

For more years than the eldest of our grandmothers can boast of Paris has been the source of inspiration and the arbiter of fashion.

But with France at war, transatlantic travel paralyzed and with but few of America's representatives venturing over, the fashion situation for weeks presented to many minds one big question mark.

But the leading designers of New York and the many Paris designers who came to America at the outbreak of the war, have achieved wonders in developing new ideas. Their successes, both in Suits and Millinery have been wrought along three distinct lines—the Military, the Slavic and the styles of the 1820's.

The Semi-Annual Fashion Show opens tomorrow and is of peculiar interest this year, presenting a beautiful and unique collection of the newest American Fashions certified as genuine examples of the highest character of styles for Spring and Summer 1915.

ELASTICITY NOTED IN NEW FASHIONS

At Mosbacher's Cloak and Suit House an exceptionally satisfactory sartorial season is anticipated. "It is, from the clothes standpoint, one of the most interesting in years," said Mr. Mosbacher. "A few French models are beginning to drift in and there will be many in the near future, now that the French designers have removed to London." Asked what especially characterized the 1915 garments, he commented that a curious fact was that inexpensive suits are quite as effective and almost indistinguishable from the higher priced. This, he explained by the limited colors and fabrics used this spring.

"There is more elasticity in elaboration, however," he added. "Tailored suits are plain or fancy. So are coats, and we are showing a line adapted to all tastes and uses. Afternoon gowns are also very beautiful. Coats? It is a big coat season. White is to be extraordinarily popular and seldom has a greater variety of these white coats been shown. Children's coats, which are one of our specialties, are radically different, having the set-in sleeve. Last year it was always the kimono sleeve—but not now."

Woman's Health Requires Care

Women are so constituted as to be peculiarly susceptible to constipation, and their general health depends in large measure on careful regulation and correction of this tendency. Their delicate organisms rebel at the violence of cathartic and purgative remedies which, while they may afford temporary relief, shock the system and seriously disturb the functional organs. A mild laxative is far preferable and, if properly compounded, much more effective. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is ideal for women's use. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 152 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

PEACE SONG SURPRISE AT ORPHEUM INTERMISSION

An agreeable surprise is handed to Orpheum patrons this week at intermission when, without warning, the beautiful voice of Miss Kowalski sings out the haunting strains of the song, "I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier." Mrs. Kowalski, who by the way, is the wife of Leon Kowalski, leader of the Orpheum orchestra, sings in a boy's voice, and at the conclusion of the song, a striking motion picture, illustrating the story of a boy who ran away from home to war and the tragedy of his experiences is thrown on the screen. Then the words of the song are also flashed on the screen, and the audience is invited to join in the singing of the chorus with the prima donna in the box. Because of its being a surprise, and because of the art with which Mrs. Kowalski invests the singing, it is a double delight to the audience, and one of the most talked of features on the program.

STATE FAIR MANAGERS WEIGH THRILL PRODUCERS

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, March 10.—Managers of state fairs were called on yesterday to determine whether a "Wild West" show was productive of more or fewer thrills among spectators than the performance of aviators looping the loop or skimming along head downward. The state fair men, Western members of the National Association of Fairs and Expositions, were besieged throughout the day by advance agents of various forms of side shows and exhibitions. Members of the National Association of Fairs and Expositions are holding their annual meeting in San Francisco, March 15 and 16.

CONGRESS IS ASKED TO SET INDIAN STATUS

By Associated Press. SANTA FE, N. M., March 10.—A joint memorial was introduced in the legislature last night asking Congress to determine definitely the status of the 7000 Pueblo Indians in New Mexico "in their relation to the state and the citizens thereof." It is set forth that the United States Supreme Court in the case of Felipe Sandoval has left the citizenship of these Indians "an open question," and that "much uncertainty exists and confusion arises in administration of laws" relating to these Indians. Congress is asked to enact laws which will definitely settle the Indian question in New Mexico.

LOCAL OPTION IN NEW YORK IS DISCUSSED

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 10.—Local option for New York City comes up among the possibilities discussed in the city hall here yesterday, where it was said unofficially that the present city administration would favor the passage of such legislation by the legislature. While Mayor McChesney refused to commit himself on the question, proponents of the law claimed his support. It was said that the sort of law wanted was one under which the city would be divided into districts, in each of which the citizens could vote on excluding liquor from the district.

RECIPE FOR BALD HEADS

Well-Known Politician Nearly Bald Now Has New Growth of Hair.

Tells How He Did It.

A western politician, well known on account of his baldness and his ready wit, surprised his friends by appearing with a new growth of hair. Many of his friends did not know him, and others thought he had a wig. On being asked how he did it, he made the following statement: "I attribute the growth of my hair to the following simple recipe which my lady, a gentleman can mix at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 4 oz. of Glycerine. Apply to the scalp three or four times a week with the finger tips. Not only does it promote the growth of the hair, but it removes dandruff, scalp humors, and prevents the hair from falling out. It darkens streaked, faded, gray hair and makes the hair soft and glossy. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home."—Advertisement.

YOUTHS BRAVE SEA IN SMALL CRAFT

Make Dangerous Trip Along Coast in Home-Made Vessel.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—A small craft used for a similar purpose on the Pacific coast, San Wilson, Frank Harris and Louis Foster of Los Angeles, have arrived in San Francisco and are now at anchor off Sausalito. The boat is called the "Harrad". After taking in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition it is the intention of the trio to point the nose of their vessel southward and continue their journey around the coast. The "Harrad" and its crew made the trip from Los Angeles in three and a half days, encountering some unusually rough weather in the vicinity of Point Arena and Cape Mendocino. The "Harrad" is thirty-three feet long, was constructed by the three young men. She is ketch rigged and carries a 10-horsepower engine. The latter is used only when the boat is in a tight place. A complete electric plant furnishes the crew with light and heat. Wilson is a miner, Foster a newspaperman and Harris a sailor. Arrangements have been made for them to anchor off the Oregon building at the Exposition, near the battleship Oregon. Upon leaving this city the three men intend to head down the California coast, touching at every port and then to Mexico and Tiburon Islands, where they will attempt to do some gold mining. At San Diego they will take on food supplies enough to last two years. This is the time that they figure it will take to make their trip to the east coast. The boat came into Sausalito at night and anchored near the revenue cutter McCullough. The next day the report was spread in Sausalito that the cutter had captured Chinese smugglers and seized the craft. The three have been busy since denying the rumor.

One day of the convention of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekah assembly of California will be held in Oakland. The convention is to be held in San Francisco in May. On May 14 the delegates, who will approach the 1000 mark, will be the guests of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Alameda county.

A 1915 committee has been appointed with members from lodges in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, San Leandro and Hayward. This body has charge of the arrangements for the day. Mrs. Hattie Bickell is chairman. Col. J. K. Ritter and Mrs. Ritter are officers of the committee. The day's entertainment will include a banquet, to be followed by an automobile ride to the principal places of interest in the county.

LISTER TO VETO BILLS AMENDING REFERENDUM

By Associated Press. WASH., March 10.—It was announced unofficially yesterday that Governor Lister will veto the two bills forbidding the circulation of initiative, referendum and recall petitions and requiring signatures to be made at registration places only, and also the bill restoring party conventions.

The Republican leaders will endeavor to pass the bills over the veto, it was reported today. The advocates of bills submitting prohibition anew next November gave up all hope today of getting the measures before the Legislature.

CHICAGO SURFACE ROAD MUST SUPPLY SEATS

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, March 10.—All passengers on the Chicago surface lines will be entitled to seats except during the rush hours, according to a city ordinance which passed the council and went to Mayor Harrison for approval yesterday.

By its terms the aggregate number of seats passing a given point in any fifteen-minute period must not be less than the number of passengers. The ordinance does not apply to a two and a half-hour period in the morning and a like time at night. The ordinance is said to be acceptable to the traction companies.

No later word has been received from the Erik, which has about 120 men on board. Earlier reports were that the Erik had been freed from the ice with three other sailers.

Miehle and an orderly, arrived there and left at once for North by automobile. General Scott was to have used an army wagon and a four-mule team sent from Fort Douglas to Thompson, but decided to use an automobile as far as possible and go the remaining distance to Bluff on horseback. General Scott said he hoped to reach Bluff by Wednesday night, but it is not believed he can make the trip before Thursday on account of the bad condition of the roads.

GOLDEN CYCLE MINING PROPERTIES ARE SOLD

Milliken of St. Louis to the Vinciguerra Gold Mining Company and affiliated Colorado capitalists had been completed, with the exception of minor details. ELECTION FRAUD CASES ON TRIAL

Attorney Outlines Government Side of Terre Haute Affair.

By Associated Press. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 10.—United States District Attorney Frank C. Bailey, at the trial of the twenty-eight alleged election fraud conspirators of Terre Haute, began yesterday outlining the government's case. Stories of the various, which Bailey said were prepared at police headquarters to be used in fraudulent registration, and the alleged false registration applications, were shown to the jury.

The district attorney intimated that many of the electors who have pleaded guilty to the indictment will be witnesses for the government. Mayor Roberts, the government's counsel asserted, called a meeting of his hand-picked election "inspectors" and told them "that no one had a right to touch the voting machines except the inspectors and that when a man entered for voting the inspectors should do the work."

Roberts also demonstrated on a voting machine the manner in which a vote would not be registered, and, furthermore, Bailey said the inspectors would pull down the Democratic lever, forcing the voter to vote that ticket. If the voter protested vigorously the inspector would permit him to vote again, thus pairing the vote and leaving both uncounted, according to the lawyer.

"The Roberts inspectors," Bailey asserted, "always stood in a position to see how a person voted, and if the voter voted 'right' communicated with the inspectors outside, who handled the money." As an example of the methods used by repeaters, Bailey gave the following: "One busy repeater was a one-legged negro, who voted eight times in one precinct. One time he wore a cork leg; the third time without anything strapped to his leg; the fourth time with an iron extension leg; the fifth time with one crutch, and one other time for the purpose of deception, he wore glasses."

ANTI-SALOON FORCES GAIN IN MINNESOTA

By Associated Press. ST. PAUL, Minn., March 10.—Anti-saloon forces gained more than twenty-five towns in yesterday's municipal elections in Minnesota on the question of licensing saloons. Incomplete returns indicated. One hundred and eighty-two towns—nearly nine-tenths of the total that voted on the issue—had been heard from with following results:

"Eighty-two wet towns will continue wet and sixty-six dry towns stay dry; thirty towns that have had saloons voted to close them and four went from the dry column to the wet."

Four small cities also voted on the saloon question. Rochester continued wet; Redville stayed dry and Park Rapids and Wadena moved from the wet to the dry ranks.

SUICIDE ATTEMPT FAILS

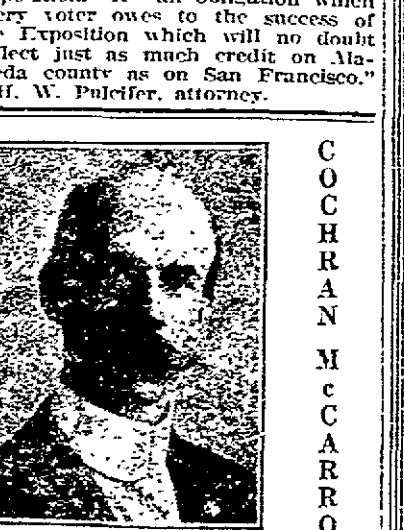

SAN RAFAEL, March 10.—Thomas Lunny, a local saloon keeper and Marine pioneer, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the head. Recent financial reverses are said to have caused the act. Lunny is 50 years old and has a mother, aged 82, and a brother, Edward, residing here. He was manager of the San Rafael baseball club for years, and is well known in sporting circles about the bay. Late reports from the hospital where he was taken indicate that there is slight chance of his recovery, the bullet having penetrated the brain.

RACING BILL FAVORED

By Associated Press. PHOENIX, Ariz., March 10.—A bill to permit horse racing in Arizona under the pari-mutual system of betting was acted upon favorably yesterday, sitting in a committee of the house. The vote was 20 to 8. The bill already has passed the senate.

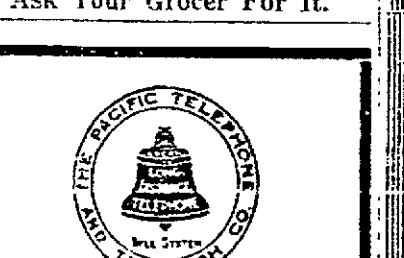

"I certainly am in favor of the bonds. Alameda county will do well to pass the bond issue and invest $1,000,000 in the capital stock of the Exposition. It's an obligation which every voter owes to the success of the Exposition which will no doubt reflect just as much credit on Alameda county as on San Francisco."

REGULATE OR OWN SAYS UNDERWOOD

Two Choices Open to America
In Railroad Matters,
He Says.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 10.—In a speech on the railroad situation before the Senate today, Mr. Underwood, Secretary of the Interior, declared that "if government regulation is unable to cope with the vexed problem that confronts us, the people will accept government ownership as the next step ahead."

Discussing the present system of regulating business, Mr. Underwood said the time had come when the government should aid and assist the leaders of industry and finance.

"It is not enough for the government to permit these men to rise from the prostration which has overtaken them and their affairs," he continued. "We have reached the point on our way to social betterment, where sound progress must recognize that the proper regulation of business requires that it must be sometimes helped and not always hindered; must sometimes be assisted and not forever stricken; that we must occasionally say 'you may' and not always 'you shall not.'"

Adequate provision for capital to maintain and extend the transportation system of the country is the problem confronting the government in its regulation of railroads, Mr. Underwood asserted. He added that "our present system of regulation is breaking down, insofar as it has supervised the finances of the railroads, with a view to allowing them properly to protect their securities that their credit may be maintained to aid in present and future development."

MUST CONSIDER SUPPLY.
The regulation of railroads, Underwood said, should take into consideration the interests not only of the railroads themselves, and those directly interested as shippers, but the entire country whose commercial prosperity is dependent upon adequate shipping facilities.

"We have undertaken the problems of government regulation of railroads," he continued, "and the government will not turn back. Regulation of practices and rates is here and here to stay. But let us stand for wise and just regulation, and not for ill-considered and dangerous regulation. We must regulate so as to ensure all necessary railroad facilities both for the present and the future. As the public in the end must pay the bill, it is primarily interested in the railroads securing the money needed for their maintenance and development at reasonable rates and equally interested in seeing that it is wisely expended."

"Resolutions never move backward. If governmental regulation is unable to cope with the vexed problem that confronts us, the people will accept government ownership as the next step ahead. It is therefore a matter of great importance that we should earnestly endeavor to reach a fair and reasonable solution of the problem of regulation at as early a day as possible."

After discussing the difficulties of dealing with the railroads through the varying jurisdictions of the state and federal governments, Mr. Underwood said:

RATES REDUCED.
"It cannot be denied that public control has reduced the rates charged for transportation and abolished unjust discriminations given to favored shippers. But the greater problem remains unsolved. Can the money be provided to expand and develop these great public works in a manner commensurate with the expanding needs of commerce under the present system of public control."

"If railway investments cannot be made attractive to capital, is not the nation threatened with an inevitable breakdown of its transportation system?"

TRIAL OF ACCUSED LYNCHERS IS STARTED

By Associated Press.
CHESTER, Ill., March 10.—The trial of five men indicted last December in connection with the lynching of Albert Piazza by a mob of whites, began today in the circuit court here yesterday. The men on trial are Allen Russell, Nelson Osborne, Charley Diddy, Edward Belsner and Thomas Browning. Piazza was killed in the street in a general fight between Americans and Italian coal miners, in which two Americans and a brother of Albert Piazza were killed. It is understood here that the Italian consuls in Illinois gathered the evidence upon which the indictments were based.

ARKANSAS RACING BILL TO BE TESTED IN COURT

By Associated Press.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 10.—Whether Arkansas has a racing commission bill or has not probably will be tested in the circuit court here today. Such a bill was filed yesterday with the secretary of state, as having passed both houses. An entry in the journal of the house of representatives asserts that a veto written across the bill by the speaker of the house of no effect because more than the statutory five days after the passage of the bill had elapsed before it was returned disapproved. The governor says he vetoed the bill within the time limit.

BANK LAWS PASSED.

By Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, March 10.—The house yesterday passed two senate bills providing for co-operative rural savings banks and co-operative land banks. The bills follow closely the system in effect in Germany and are based on the report of the Erickson commission appointed by President Taft, which investigated the rural credit systems of Europe. Four bankers members of the house voted against the bills. The legislature also passed today a bill providing for an expenditure of $100,000 to improve the highways of the state.

OLYMPIA ORDERED TO HAITI.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Rear Admiral Fletcher cabled the navy department last night that the protected cruiser Olympia, Dewey's old flagship, had been ordered from Guantanamo to Port-au-Prince to take the place of the armored cruiser Washington, which left the Haitian capital yesterday for Vera Cruz. The Washington has been guarding foreign interests in Haiti, where successful revolutionaries have just set up a new government.

COMPULSORY MILITARY BILL.

By Associated Press.
HONOLULU, T. H., March 10.—A bill making military education compulsory as part of the Hawaii school system was introduced yesterday in the lower territorial house. The bill provides that youths must join the militia at 15 years of age or take a year's course of military instruction in the schools. The measure has the sanction of the militia and is understood to be favored by the army authorities.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to fresh kidneys if bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the urine acid in meat excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

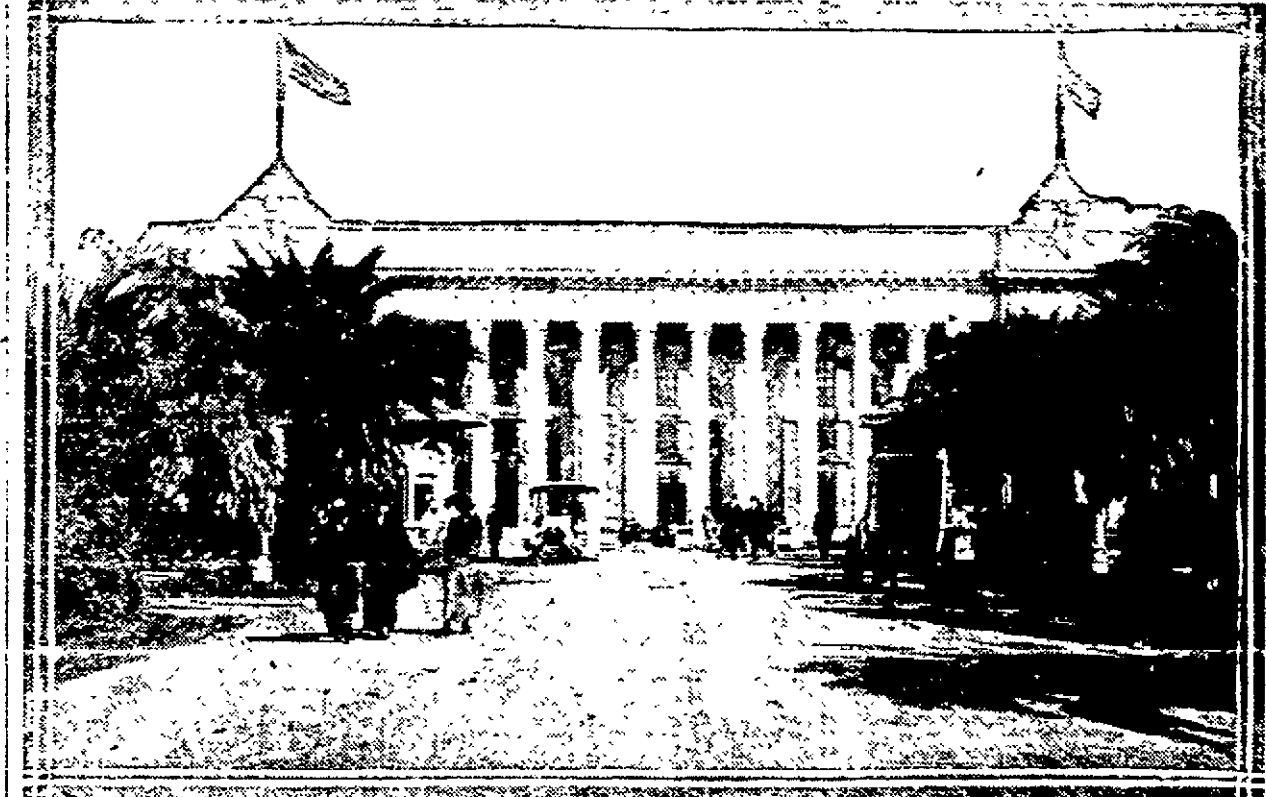

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

The exposition authorities have prepared a most elaborate program of fireworks display. There are twenty-five numbers on the list and there will not be a dull moment from 7:45, when the red fire shows heavenward from the top of the mountain, until 8:45, when the flame dies down and the crater is shrouded in gloom.

FOWNES GLOVES

There's nothing novel or queer about Fownes gloves.

In the main they are just such handsome, substantial articles as substantial people prefer to wear.

Some of the styles are just radical enough to please the less sober minded.

But always within the bounds of good taste.

Their chief claim on your consideration is their dependability.

SELLS NOT TO FACE VOGEL CHARGE

Petersen Disgusted Over Situation: Will Rest On His Oars.

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, March 10.—Alfred Seils, the bandit who confessed, today pleaded guilty to the charge of having robbed Fred Harlow, a cafe proprietor and two other men in Harlow's home several months ago.

Immediately afterward he was given a preliminary hearing in a justice court on the charge of having participated in the hold-up of the Southern Pacific Lark train near Burbank last September. It was expected he would plead guilty to this charge in the superior court today, as the hold-up was among the crimes he confessed.

If he does, it was considered probable that the anticipated life sentence for the train robbery would be imposed late this afternoon.

During Seils' hearing on the Lark hold-up charge an attorney for Charles E. Sligh, his alleged partner in crime, declared that the self-avowed bandit had claimed a role in the train robbery and was now facing trial in the north for participation in the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Vogel.

Maurice Hallman, a banker who was among the passengers robbed on the Lark, was unable to identify Seils.

"Thank you for nothing," said Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen today, when informed that the Los Angeles police had offered to let him have Albert Sells, after Sells had been given a life sentence in San Quentin for the murder of Samuel J. Quentín any time I like with an Alameda county order to try him. I don't need any permission from Los Angeles.

"That we will probably do is to get a grand jury indictment and place it on file in San Quentin, so that if Sells is ever paroled he will have to face a murder charge. We can place the depositions of the witnesses on file as evidence if available if the witnesses have disappeared.

PREVENTS POLICE REWARD.

"It does not seem to me that it is worth while to go to the expense of trying a man, who has already been sentenced to life, in this county. The reward of $50,000 for the conviction of some detective down in Los Angeles could collect the rewards for the conviction of the Vogel murderer. That hardly seems of enough importance to me to go to this extra expense. I have been thinking a good deal of late of what they plan to do with Sells, but I was told last night that they were looking up the law to see whether it would be feasible to have him sentenced after having been given life sentence on a robbery conviction.

"There is no difficulty about this and if they were on to their jobs they would know that it had been so long time and time again. I am told that they are willing that we should bring Sells to Oakland after he has been sentenced. We are much obliged, but I am sure that you will not take care here. It will be cheaper to take him out of San Quentin if we want him."

PETERSEN DISGUISED.

Petersen expressed himself as being satisfied that disgusted and tired of the whole affair. He had been anxious to bring Sells to Oakland, that the Vogel murder might be threshed out and the case closed. He had been to Los Angeles authorities in attaining his

On a robbery charge down there and giving a life sentence would make unnecessary any action by the local authorities.

Chief Petersen held a conference with District Attorney W. H. L. Hyne last night and told him that under the circumstances it would appear to be a useless expenditure of time and money to bring this murderer to Oakland.

GOVERNMENT MAY SEIZE FACTORIES FOR WAR USE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 10.—Drastic steps for amendment to the defense of the realm act unexpectedly presented to the House of Commons by Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George passed all its stages. The chancellor proposed that the government be empowered to commandeer all factories requested for war purposes.

up to the present firms and factories already producing war materials could be taken under government control. The amending bill of the chancellor extends this power to cover all other concerns which the government may wish to utilize for this purpose.

Mr. Lloyd-George laid particular emphasis upon the statement that not only the duration, but the success of the war depended upon the output of munitions. The government, he declared, proposed to organize the entire engineering community through a committee headed by the general manager of the industry, and to work with the idea of assisting in the increase of output.

War Damage to Business Passing, Says Federal Expert.

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, March 10.—Trade conditions in most of the countries of South and Central America are rapidly recovering from the collapse which followed the outbreak of the European war, according to E. E. Pratt, chief of the federal bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, who addressed the Detroit Board of Commerce last night on the outlook for the foreign trade of the United States. Now is the time, Mr. Pratt said, for manufacturers to send a salesman or a business diplomat into South America to study the needs of the country and lay the foundations for future business.

Explaining the difference between actual and fictitious trade balances, Pratt said the steady pouring of food and supplies from the United States into Europe now was building up an actual balance in favor of America at the rate of millions a month.

"The countries to the south of us at the outbreak of the war," he continued, "were in very much the position of a manufacturer who has manufactured his annual output and then finds that his market has collapsed and that his orders are cancelled."

CONDITIONS CHANGE.

"But conditions are changing. The countries which were most closely related to Europe—Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador and the countries of Central America—are recovering and are fairly prosperous. Argentina and Uruguay are approaching normal. Brazil and Peru have just started on the upgrade. Brazil and Chile among the countries of Latin America (except Mexico) have been unable to begin their recovery.

"A more minute examination of the conditions in Argentina is thoroughly worth while. Argentina had been suffering during the latter half of 1913 and the beginning of 1914 from a severe financial depression. It was essentially a deflation and speculation, caused by crop failures and other adverse events.

In spite of the gravity of the situation six months ago, Argentina is already recovering and is approaching normal conditions. Argentina is on a firmer foundation of sound values than ever before. Argentina is today getting higher prices for her wheat, corn, oats, wool and meat than ever before.

But, after all, the economic conditions of the countries to the south of us is not nearly as important as the concept of common sense which our leadership lacks or may not have.

"Jitneyette" Freed by Police Judge; Had Crossed Track

Mrs. C. Hampton, one of the three or four women jitney bus drivers of Oakland, was arrested last night for failing to stop at the Key Route crossing. She said that she had a family to support, and Judge Smith suspended judgment.

what they are talking about if they think the police have been persecuting them in the enforcement of this finney ordinance," said Chief Walter J. Petersen today. "We have been lenient, and have tried to take a common-sense view of things, not insisting upon the letter of the law."

"There have been innumerable petty violations of the law as it stands, but we have made no arrests for these. There have been violations in not having the proper lights, in not completing the trips to the proper terminal routes, in overcrowding by persons, but we have not arrested. There was no justification for, in running into people where the circumstances did not make this excusable, in failing to obtain the proper bonds. The charge of perjury is nonsense. We have enforced the law drastically, or even strictly, they might have cause to complain, but, as it is, we have been very lenient with them."

one for chasing up new markets South America?

"Absolutely not," says the president. "It's not an opportunity for selling goods."

"Absolutely not so," rhetorically, he SHOULD SEND SALESMEN.

"And here is the difference: This is the time to send a salesman; before, a business didn't exist in South America. Now it does, and we must be there to take advantage of the opportunity to become acquainted with the trade and to lay the foundations for future business."

"The export, however, to obtain larger quantities of goods, is not a new market. It is only the fulfilment of a demand that has already been expressed. You will not see a new salesman in a new domestic market, but a new agent in an old market. There is no profit on his initiative. Therefore, to export it is a formal

STATE OFFICIAL FACES ATTACK

"Non-Board" Companies Seek to Oust Insurance Commissioner

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Charging that John E. Phelps, state insurance commissioner, was appointed by Governor Johnson under the influence of the Board of Surety Underwriters and that he is a sympathizer with so-called "board" companies as against independent concerns, the Commonwealth Bonding and Casualty Company filed suit for a restraining order in the Federal court today.

They ask that Phelps be enjoined from taking away their certificate to do business in this state and were granted a temporary restraining order made returnable next Monday.

In a lengthy complaint it intimated that the concern which is incorporated under the laws of Arizona, has been doing business in this state for some time and was warned by Phelps that unless there was deposited $25,000 with the state treasurer by noon today he would have them put them out of business. It is alleged that Phelps was appointed July 1, 1914, by the Governor under the influence of the Standard Oil company. When the appointed statements were made that this company would be put out of business.

A further charge is made that Phelps had formerly been secretary of the Board of Underwriters and that his sympathy was for the Standard Oil company and Commonwealth Bonding and Casualty company is not a member of the board, but an independent concern with offices at 631 Market street. The complaint says that Phelps, after examining into the affairs of the Standard Oil company, found $2,000,000 in its assets. It is charged, however, that he failed to have any conversation certain properties held by the company.

New Lens Meets With Unparalleled Success

Immense Demand for "Caltex One-piece" Bifocals.

The new double vision glasses called "Caltex One-piece" Bifocals are in great demand because they have formerly worn the old style bifocals, or two pairs of glasses—one for reading and one for distance. The "Caltex One-piece" Bifocals are made from one single piece of glass and have the appearance of an ordinary pair of glasses. Many people who have been wearing the old style bifocals are now wearing the "Caltex One-piece" with perfect comfort and satisfaction. They are made on correct scientific principles and as ground by the California Optical Company are correct in every detail. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 10.

Lord, who died June 17, 1914, and that she is the only child of the man to whom by his will left an estate worth close to $500,000 to friends because he said, he had "no friends, no children or any persons dependent upon me."

Most of the affidavits were made by persons who had been residing in California, and they set forth that they never heard the testator speak of the woman who now claims to be his widow, and never saw her with ¶ The STROUD is one of the five PIANOLA PIANOS (made by the Aeolian Company), and contains all the remarkable exclusive and patented features of the higher-priced styles.

¶ The STROUD PIANOLA contains the wonderful METROSTYLE, the device for controlling tempo and imparting the correct interpretation. The device consists of a red line marked on the roll and a movable pointer on the instrument. The marking was made by a master musician as the composition should be played. Simply follow the red line with the Metro-style pointer and, measure by measure, the selection is played with the correct tempo and the proper interpretation.

¶ The STROUD PIANOLA possesses an exceptionally full and melodious tone, a quick and correct action; the case of mahogany or oak is the very latest design. As a PIANO the merits of the STROUD claim the admiration of hundreds of well-known musicians.

ATTACKS WOMAN,
THEN SLAYS SELFMountain View Butcher, Jilted, Seeks Life of His Sweetheart.

SAN JOSE, Mar. 10.—William Jeffrey, a butcher of Mountain View, stabbed himself through the heart yesterday, following an encounter with Mrs. Petra Petrica, wife of a painter. Jeffrey had been paying attentions to Mrs. Petrica for several months, according to her statement, but she objected to more of his advances. While Mrs. Petrica's husband was on business in San Jose, Jeffrey went to the woman's home and beat her, then slashed her with a large butcher knife, inflicting a serious wound. Then Jeffrey went to the town marshal's office and after telling of slaying Mrs. Petrica, pierced his own heart.

REDDING, Mar. 10.—Mrs. Ramon Lopez, or Maria Mazaria, a Diggar Indian, who was tried in San Francisco in January and acquitted of the murder of Antonio Guiterrez at 114 Stockton street on October 24, last year, was arrested here yesterday on a charge of another stabbing affair. It is alleged she stabbed Mrs. Ruth Gilmore in the shoulder last night in a local lodging-house, the cut being seven inches long and to the bone.

SAN DIEGO, Mar. 10.—Excitement occasioned by anticipation of a visit tomorrow to the Panama-Pacific exposition and his first automobile ride, caused the death here yesterday of Conception Mendez, 103 years of age. The dead man was the last member of a well-known Spanish family, which settled in San Diego in the early sixties.

REDDING, Mar. 10.—The old stone building at Klamath Hot Springs, twenty miles from Aker, was burned last night, but the contents were saved. In a main hotel, the smaller buildings and the cottages were uninjured and there will be no interruption in the business of this popular resort.

GRASS VALLEY, Mar. 10.—It was reported here that $150 was discovered hidden in the house of Mrs. Elmer McLeod, who was found dead on Sunday morning by her six small children, whom she was living alone. The family had been reported destitute many times during the last year. The husband, who has been working in a distant mining camp, arrived and will care for the children. Death was due to a chronic ailment.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 10.—J. B. Mayer, president of the First National Bank of Corcoran, Cal., and Fred L. Foster and Mayer were released under $2500 bail.

STOCKTON, Mar. 10.—Mrs. Julia Garvin, a resident of this city for four years, died early yesterday within fourteen hours after her daughter, Mrs. Margaret May, expired at a local hospital. Mrs. Garvin had been in failing health for a year, and her condition was greatly aggravated recently when her daughter and son-in-law, who were visiting her, were killed in an automobile accident. Mrs. Garvin died at the home of her daughter's recovery. Yesterday, when Mrs. May died, the mother grew worse and sank steadily until the end.

SAN RAFAEL, Mar. 10.—John Jacob Schneider, pioneer resident of this city, passed away at his home here yesterday. BETRAYED BY WOMAN

SAN RAFAEL, Mar. 10.—Betrayed by his former sweetheart whose love he was trying to regain, Cecil D. Morrison, alias "C. D.", was taken into custody by Sheriff J. J. Keating at Fort McDowell yesterday on a warrant from Bozeman, Mont., charging forgery. Morrison enlisted in the army last month after slipping away from the Montana officials. Determined, he says, to live down his past and regain the love of the girl of his choice, Morrison wrote to a Bozeman girl, who informed the police of his whereabouts. He will fight extradition.

JAIL, HAILED BY CROWD

CONSUMERS' PROTEST IS HEARD BY COMMISSION

TULARE, March 10.—Testimony of consumers who protest against the rates of the Mount Whitney Power and Electric Company was given yesterday at a hearing before Commissioner Thelen of the state railroad commission. The consumers protest against a five-year contract making unpaid bills a lien on the consumers' property, also a charge of 1 per cent a month on delinquent accounts and the right of the power companies to extend lines over the consumers' land at will.

The hearing was in the case against the Mount Whitney Company. The case brought against the San Joaquin Light and Power Company will be taken up tomorrow.

NO PLEDGE MADE, IS
ANSWER OF EMPLOYERS

SEATTLE, March 10.—Replying to Governor Lister's charge that the State Employers' Association for other organizations of employers had not kept faith with him when they opposed the first bill drawn by the governor's commission, the Employers' Association sent a long letter yesterday to the governor, saying no pledge had been made to support the commission bill.

The association supported Senator Kleebe's bill, which was passed by the senate and which has not been acted upon by the house.

As Governor Lister has virtually said that he would veto the Kleebe bill if it were passed, it is expected that the house will take no action.

DEFUNCT CHIEF'S "GHOST" PROVES POOR ADVISER

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—"White Eagle," supposed to be the spirit of a defunct Indian chief who controlled "Dr." Oscar Haas, pastor of an occult church, served only to adversely influence a jury in the Superior Court today when Haas went to judgment on a charge of swindling followers by selling them worthless land. Haas was convicted of having defrauded Mrs. Thomas Flynn out of $2000. Testimony was to the effect that White Eagle advised every one to buy from Haas at $500 an acre desert lands, later found to be worth only a small fraction of that sum.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Advertisement.

WOMEN CHALLENGED
IN TRIAL FOR MURDER

TACOMA, Wash., March 10.—The second day of the trial of Mrs. Bertha M. Duffley for the murder of 3-year-old Clarence Hall, saw the completion of the jury, nine men and three women being sworn in. The defense used its peremptory challenges to excuse a number of women. Much of the questioning centered about prejudices against capital punishment, it being alleged that the death of the boy resulted from harsh treatment by Mrs. Duffley, who was housekeeper in the Hall home. Two children, the 5-year-old brother of the dead boy and 5-year-old granddaughter of the accused woman, are included in the list of witnesses. The taking of testimony began this morning.

PATENT OFFICE BILL
MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING

WASHINGTON, March 10.—In the rush of legislation through Congress in the closing hours of the session last week a bill which had passed both houses providing for reorganization of the patent office mysteriously disappeared. The measure, of considerable importance to the patent office, was lost after it had passed the Senate, and never went through the final stages of enrollment.

Senate officials say the bill probably was turned over to a page to take to the secretary's office, and was lost in transit. It had been pending in the Senate since last September, when it passed the House, and provided for an increased staff of examiners and other changes in the office.

FOUND IN SNOWDRIFT

By Associated Press.
NOME, Alaska, March 10.—The body of Mrs. Emma Dalquist, who became lost in a blizzard Sunday night while driving a dog team from Safety to Nome, was found buried under a snowdrift yesterday. She had been frozen to death. Apparently the woman had become deranged in the bitter cold for she had thrown away her mittens and mukluks.

Mrs. Dalquist's body was found by A. A. (Scotty) Allan, the widely known racing dog driver, who was on the trail since early yesterday seeking the lost woman. He found her mukluks fifteen miles from Nome and a short distance off the Cape Nome road early yesterday morning. Returning to the vicinity later in the day he searched among the snowdrifts and found the woman's body, which is being brought to Nome.
